The Charitable Trust

The Irish Rugby Football Union Charitable Trust is a registered charity founded in 1978 to assist seriously injured players in their everyday lives and helps to restore their confidence and independence.

Payments made include locomotory expenses, house alterations or extensions, wheelchairs, beds or lifting equipment, cars and vans, along with assistance for caring expenses.

The trust is administered by a sub-committee of the Irish Rugby Football Union.

The Trust Fund is dependent upon regular grants from the Irish Rugby Football Union along with revenue raised from regular fundraising events.

Membership of the Friends Scheme is intended to provide an additional regular annual income to the trust fund.
